Absent: Tammy Sehn.

Thomas Lawton opened with a prayer

Minutes: A motion was made to accept the August 14 minutes as published by Linda Camp, seconded by Dana Shiflett and approved.

Treasurer's Report: A motion to accept made by Diane Brady, second by Janet Dangler and approved.

Congregational Care: Linda continues to send cards which are greatly appreciated. It was decided to have breakfast on October 2 which is World Communion Sunday. Janet will coordinate same. It was also decided to resume coffee hours soon.

Christian Education: Clayton and Thomas reported that they are collecting items for health kits for Church World Service.

Women's Fellowship: The rummage sale was successful and will continue for another week.

Building and Grounds: The boiler needs attention which will be done soon. Dave has not heard back from Mosher Roofing about the bell tower. Mary Lou will try to contact them about whether they are interested in the job. Dave also mentioned that with the neighbor's tree gone, it is a good time to look into solar panels which. It was decided to ask him to do that.

Worship: All is well.

Pastor: There will be a joint service at Three Steeples on November 20. Advent Bible study begins December 1 in Deansboro.

Clerk:

New Business: There was discussion regarding the harvest dinner. It was decided to hold the dinner as a drive thru take out only dinner. Rick will check with the fire department regarding use of coolers, ovens and possibility of use of fire police for traffic control.

Meeting was Adjourned

The next meeting will be October 9 following the worship service.

Respectfully submitted

Mary Lou Rosecrants, Clerk
